

That the Power of Money

in making more money is the secret of getting rich is generally admitted.

The average so-called "savings deposit" is only $400—yet this $400 represents 6 per cent. interest on nearly $7,000 for a full year. As the most of these accounts were started with a deposit of one to ten dollars and gradually increased to their present size, doesn't it seem that you YOU can do fully as well as others? Make up your mind to DO IT—then it's merely a case of application. Your earnings are as large, or larger, than those of the average depositor referred to, only—you haven't been banking your money.

Come in and let us tell you some other reasons why you should have a bank account.

Bishop Cheshire Coming.

On Sunday evening, October 25th, at 8 o'clock, Bishop Joseph Blount Cheshire will fill his regular appointment at Trinity church, in Scotland Neck. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

Painfully Hurt.

Last Sunday night while Misses Maude and Lena Leggett were returning from church to their home in Clarksville, Miss Maude stumbled against a bench, that some one had placed across the side-walk, which caused her to fall and painfully hurt herself. It is not known who put the bench on the walk but such conduct is to be condemned.

Enlarging His Hosiery Mill.

It is learned from the Enfield Progress that Mr. Geo. T. Andrews, of that town, formally a hosiery manufacturer of Scotland Neck, is preparing to enlarge his hosiery mill there. The demand for his goods are greater than his output will supply.

Mr. Andrews' many friends in Scotland Neck and elsewhere will be glad to learn of his marked success.

Once More.

It may be a sore subject to delinquents, but we remind them that only a comparative few have responded to our appeal of two weeks ago to settle their subscription dues. We still need every dollar that is due us and we feel sure that many who owe us would settle if they really understood the situation with us as it really is.

Please, kind reader, do not disregard your obligation any longer. Call and settle what you owe or send it by mail.

Approaching Marriage.

The following invitation has been received at this office, and will greatly interest the many friends of the contracting parties:

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Irwin Clark invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter Rebecca Calvert to Dr. Thurman Delna Kitchin on the morning of Tuesday the third of November at quarter to ten o'clock Trinity Church Scotland Neck, North Carolina [No invitations sent out in town.]

Revival Meeting in the Baptist Church.

Rev. C. J. D. Parker, of Portsmouth, Va., is here conducting a revival meeting in the Baptist church. He commenced the services Monday night, and at the very beginning of the meeting he made a most favorable impression on all that heard him. Already deep interest is manifested in the meeting, and services Tuesday night were especially impressive.

Mr. Parker is a preacher of great power and presents the gospel with much earnestness and effect. Few men are so gifted with his fluency of speech, and with it all he preaches the gospel in a style and manner altogether logical and convincing. He has had great success as a pastor-evangelist, is a young man of vigorous activities and throws his whole soul and powers into his work. Even those who might care not for religion are greatly pleased and benefited by hearing him. This is a rare opportunity for the people of Scotland Neck and community to hear gospel truth in great power and to learn more of the blessed story of redemption to the world through Jesus Christ. Truly that story is being told in our midst with pathos and tenderness and effect which one seldom hears.

Services are held every night at 7:30 o'clock and every afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and all the people are cordially invited to attend.

Tragedy in Greenville.

(News and Observer.) Greenville, N. C., Oct. 19.—In this town about ten o'clock last night, occurred a terrible tragedy, resulting in two men being dangerously shot and both likely to prove fatal. Mr. A. B. Kittrell, in company with a friend, was taking lunch in a cafe. Mr. C. F. White was walking by and some one inside called him. Mr. White went in and approached Mr. Kittrell, and asked if it was he that called him, when Kittrell replied no. White drew a pocket knife and started at Kittrell, who picked up a stool to ward off the attack. White then drew a pistol and fired three shots, one going wild, one striking Kittrell in the breast above the heart, the other in the side. Kittrell then grabbed the pistol from White's hand and with the same weapon shot White once in the abdomen, felling him to the floor.

Kittrell walked to the door and handed the pistol to an officer who had been attracted by hearing the shooting. Both men are desperately wounded. White was today carried to a hospital in Washington.

Preached at Kehukee.

Elder James Oliphant, of Indiana, and Elder Norton, of Washington, D. C., preached at Kehukee Sunday morning. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Allsbrook.

They attended the recent Primitive Baptist Association in Rocky Mount, and are on their way home, after visiting several churches in Eastern North Carolina.

Their sermons Sunday were strong and forceful, and those who heard these eminent preachers were well pleased.

Medford-Stallings.

At the home of the bride's mother in East Scotland Neck, at 8:45 Tuesday morning, October 20th, Miss Lydia Stallings was married to Mr. Charlie Medford, Rev. R. A. McFarland performing the ceremony. It was a quite marriage, only a few friends of the contracting parties being present.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Medford took the 9:30 train for Norfolk, Portsmouth, Richmond and other Virginia cities.

The friends of the happy pair wish them long life, great success and unalloyed happiness all the way.

A Smart Little Thief.

Walter Hyman, a colored lad who worked about the premises of Mrs. Olivia McDowell, is now county boarder in the jail at Halifax.

He practiced some sharp tricks in chicken stealing but was caught some days ago by officer C. W. Dunn. He stole a number of chickens it seems and sold them to different persons about town, and when some of the chickens were recognized in a coop at Mr. J. D. Ray's store he was arrested on the charge of stealing chickens and on trial confessed the crime. He was sent to Halifax jail. Since then some chickens have been found in a bag in a out house at Mrs. McDowell's he evidently had them in readiness for sale but failed to tell about them before he was carried to jail.

A number of our people went to the State Fair last week, and speak in glowing terms of the exhibits, and attractions of various kinds.

Quite a large crowd of our folks went to the Emporia Fair last Thursday and report plenty of dust, and a good time.

Your correspondent spent last Friday in Elm City, being called there by the death of an aunt, who had lived a consistent Christian life for nearly fifty years. Though our heart was saddened by the loss we sustained, it was a pleasure to look again upon the scenes of our childhood. There are many changes of course there as elsewhere, our grandmother's old homestead is no more, it having been replaced long since by a house more modern, but the old long sweep well was there, and Oh! how good that water tasted, just as it did when grandma used to draw, and we drank from the long-handled gourd, and went chasing the butterflies and resenting the threatening attitude of those old geese, while we tried to capture a gosling. Happy youth, perhaps if we could live it over again taking into it some of the extremely high-priced experiences which we have had it would be a safe-guard against some of the follies and vices of which we have been guilty, but we cannot re-trace our steps, we live our lives only once; we can only redeem the flippant carelessness of the past, by our adherence to sound Christian principals in the future. College and University students receive their rewards in medals and diplomas, we who run the Christian race receive ours only when we enter the pearly gates. The satisfaction of knowing the Judge will be impartial, should encourage us, as we have an equal chance with the other man.

Would Mortgage The Farm.

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw, one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c. at E. T. Whitehead Company's drug store.

Round Table Club.

(Reported to The Commonwealth.) The Round Table Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Chas. W. Albertson at her hospitable home in the country, on Tuesday afternoon from four to six o'clock.

It was an ideal autumn day, the drive out being an added pleasure to the anticipation of a pleasant afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated with quantities of pink roses, geraniums and dahlias. The ruddy glow thrown out from the bright fire in the large open fireplace matched well with the flowers.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. G. S. White, Miss Adelaide Smith was the essayist and Mrs. W. H. Josey the reader for the afternoon.

Miss Smith's subject was "The Religious Literature of the English Language. Her paper was instructive showing much study and deep research.

Mrs. Josey read a few pages from Taive's Literature, showing us how the early English Literature is regarded and estimated by a foreigner—the writer being a Frenchman.

After a general discussion, the guests were invited into the dining room. The long table with several small tables was daintily laid, the centrepieces on these tables were bowls of exquisite roses and dahlias, all pink. The color scheme of pink and green was well carried out in the dainty refreshments consisting of lobster and shrimp salad served in green peppers garnished with pastry, olives, cheese, wafers, beaten biscuit, coffee and cream.

A spirit of informality was the characteristic vote of this meeting, and it was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests who will all agree that Mrs. Albertson is a delightful hostess.

Those present were: Mesdames W. D. Leggett, H. I. Clark, A. L. Purrington, J. E. Bowers, G. S. White, W. H. Josey, R. C. Josey, W. R. Bond, Claude Kitchin. Misses Addie Smith, Lena Leggett, and Eleanor Smith.

The invited guests were Mesdames Stuart Smith and G. H. Johnson.

Kehdney's Laxative Cough Syrup is used nearly everywhere, because it not only heals irritation of the throat and stops the cough, but it drives the cold out of the system through its laxative principle by assuring a free and gentle action of the bowels, and that is the only way to cure a cold. You can't cure it as long as you are constipated. Insist upon Kehdney's Laxative Cough Syrup. Sold by E. T. Whitehead Company.

A Card.

I wish to say that while I fully appreciate the support of my friends for the office of Sheriff, I am strongly of the opinion that it is not the time to bring out a new ticket. While there is a great deal of dissatisfaction among the people, I am thoroughly of the opinion that we can settle these differences in two years in the Democratic ranks. I therefore beg that my name shall not be used for the office of Sheriff.

I shall always remember with the highest appreciation the support of those true men who have been so loyal to me.

Most respectfully,
J. R. PATTERSON.

Electric Light Notice.
